PRAYER REQUESTS

- Pray for the Pastor Search Committee: to ask the Holy Spirit to guide them forward, to give them wisdom and discernment each step of the way as they move from identifying congregational priorities and needs, to inviting candidates to consider applying, for discernment through the hiring process, and eventually onboarding the person God will bring to us. Pray that the right person will be drawn toward us, and that we are drawn toward the right candidate.
- Outreach Prayer Focus: Lord, I pray that ____ would put all their trust in Christ (John 1:12; 5:24).
- DBC Global Partner: Jason/Joanne Borrowman with AIM in Africa: Praise that we had visitors. Pray for the baptism classes as they end, that people will continue to be faithful in attending. Praise God that the girls are continuing to develop friendships with local kids, and that Joanne continues to have a healthy pregnancy. Pray for the Gabra as they work through tough questions of culture and scripture meeting.
- Talnoe Baptist Church, Ukraine: Village of Maydanets has 8 believers – mainly old people. Pray for safety as an elder from Talnoe goes out once a month to serve communion
- Sinagen Bibleless People in Papua New Guinea: Pray for unity among churches, missions' organizations and individual believers working to share the Gospel and the Scriptures with the Bibleless group.

Hello church Families!

I look forward to visiting each church through the month of November. If you have any questions about our home or how you can get involved, please stop me for a chat while I am there.

Some of you may have noticed Reuben's artwork displayed throughout our home! Reuben first began showcasing his paintings at our annual Show & Shine, where they quickly became a favorite. His artwork has become so popular that we dedicated a wall to display his beautiful creations.

Reuben regularly brings down new, freshly painted pictures to add to the collection. Sometimes, I think the paint is barely dry! He loves sharing the stories and inspiration behind his artwork and generously donates a portion of each sale back to Spruce Manor.

The next time you are visiting, be sure to stop by and take a look! It can be a great Christmas Gift idea for that hard to buy for person on your list. If something catches your eye, please contact the office for more information or to arrange a purchase.

We are so grateful to Reuben for sharing his wonderful talent with us!

Paul closed the letter we call 1 Thessalonians with several exhortations or admonishments. He says this in verses 16-18 of the last chapter: "Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you." (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 ESV)

This is a difficult challenge. It is not human nature to rejoice always, pray without ceasing, or give thanks in all circumstances. Some of our circumstances can be quite dire, and it is not natural to give thanks for the worst things in life. It's hard for me, and I would imagine it is for many of you.

But as I reflect on my years of supporting FEBC churches, I think, collectively at least, we are doing quite well. I have walked through some very difficult situations with church leaders. Situations that came out of nowhere and threatened the very existence of the church. I have witnessed financial challenges, spiritual challenges, personality conflicts, and many other serious concerns. In a secular setting, many of these challenges would undoubtedly cause the organization to come apart at the seams. But that is not the typical outcome I see among our churches.

Within our churches and within our Fellowship, I see a pattern of leaders who are rejoicing always, even when things aren't turning out how they hoped. I see a pattern of people who pray without ceasing – understanding that God holds the keys to their future. I see strong conviction that we are to give thanks in all circumstances, even the ones we wished we would never have to endure.

This is the will of God in Christ Jesus for us. It is also the key to lasting, faithful ministry. As we view the problems we face in a God-honoring way, we are enabled to keep going despite the challenges. Adversity strengthens our faith, our dependence on God, and our connections with our brothers and sisters who share ministry with us. Shared adversity is part of the glue that binds us.

Whether you are in Canada and recently celebrated Thanksgiving, or in the US and are still looking forward to it, take a moment to size up your circumstances – and give thanks. Perhaps you will realize that you are experiencing incredible blessings, and you can give thanks for that. Or you may find that God is using incredibly difficult circumstances to shape you. It may not be easy but give thanks for that too – right in the middle of it, not just someday when the trouble has passed.

We at the FEBC are incredibly grateful to God for his continued blessing. He is our great Provider. And as we depend on him, we will be grateful no matter what happens next.

Kevin Stone, President FEBC
